

House _____ Amendment NO. _____

Offered By _____

1 AMEND Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 526, Page 1, in the Title, Line 3, by 2 deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof "workers' compensation."; and

4 Further amend said bill and page, Section A, Line 2, by inserting the following after all of said line:
5 "287.120. 1. Every employer subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be liable,
6 irrespective of negligence, to furnish compensation under the provisions of this chapter for personal
7 injury or death of the employee by accident or occupational disease arising out of and in the course
8 of the employee's employment. Any employee of such employer shall not be liable for any injury or 9 death for which compensation is recoverable under this chapter and every employer and employees
10 of such employer shall be released from all other liability whatsoever, whether to the employee or 11 any other person, except that an employee shall not be released from liability for injury or death if 12 the employee engaged in an affirmative negligent act that purposefully and dangerously caused or 13 increased the risk of injury. The term "accident" as used in this section shall include, but not be 14 limited to, injury or death of the employee caused by the unprovoked violence or assault against the 15 employee by any person.

16 2. The rights and remedies herein granted to an employee shall exclude all other rights and 17 remedies of the employee, his wife, her husband, parents, personal representatives, dependents, heirs
18 or next kin, at common law or otherwise, on account of such injury or death by accident or 19 occupational disease, except such rights and remedies as are not provided for by this chapter.

20 3. No compensation shall be allowed under this chapter for the injury or death due to the 21 employee's intentional self-inflicted injury, but the burden of proof of intentional self-inflicted injury
22 shall be on the employer or the person contesting the claim for allowance.

23 4. Where the injury is caused by the failure of the employer to comply with any statute in 24 this state or any lawful order of the division or the commission, the compensation and death benefit
25 provided for under this chapter shall be increased [~~fifteen~~] twenty-five percent.

26 5. Where the injury is caused by the failure of the employee to use safety devices where 27 provided by the employer, or from the employee's failure to obey any reasonable rule adopted by the 28 employer for the safety of employees, the compensation and death benefit provided for herein shall 29 be reduced [~~at least twenty-five but not more than fifty~~] twenty-five percent; provided, that it is 30 shown that the employee had actual knowledge of the rule so adopted by the employer; and 31 provided, further, that the employer had, prior to the injury, made a reasonable effort to cause his or her employees to use the safety device or devices and to obey or follow the rule so adopted for the safety of the employees.

6. (1) Where the employee fails to obey any rule or policy adopted by the employer relating to a drug-free workplace or the use of alcohol or nonprescribed controlled drugs in the workplace, the compensation and death benefit provided for herein shall be reduced fifty percent if the injury was sustained in conjunction with the use of alcohol or nonprescribed controlled drugs.

(2) If, however, the use of alcohol or nonprescribed controlled drugs in violation of the employer's rule or policy is the proximate cause of the injury, then the benefits or compensation otherwise payable under this chapter for death or disability shall be forfeited.

(3) The voluntary use of alcohol to the percentage of blood alcohol sufficient under Missouri law to constitute legal intoxication shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the voluntary use of alcohol under such circumstances was the proximate cause of the injury. A preponderance of the evidence standard shall apply to rebut such presumption. An employee's refusal to take a test for alcohol or a nonprescribed controlled substance, as defined by section 195.010, at the request of the employer shall result in the forfeiture of benefits under this chapter if the employer had sufficient cause to suspect use of alcohol or a nonprescribed controlled substance by the claimant or if the employer's policy clearly authorizes post-injury testing.

7. Where the employee's participation in a recreational activity or program is the prevailing cause of the injury, benefits or compensation otherwise payable under this chapter for death or disability shall be forfeited regardless that the employer may have promoted, sponsored or supported the recreational activity or program, expressly or impliedly, in whole or in part. The forfeiture of benefits or compensation shall not apply when:

(1) The employee was directly ordered by the employer to participate in such recreational activity or program;

(2) The employee was paid wages or travel expenses while participating in such recreational activity or program; or

(3) The injury from such recreational activity or program occurs on the employer's premises due to an unsafe condition and the employer had actual knowledge of the employee's participation in the recreational activity or program and of the unsafe condition of the premises and failed to either curtail the recreational activity or program or cure the unsafe condition.

8. Mental injury resulting from work-related stress does not arise out of and in the course of the employment, unless it is demonstrated that the stress is work related and was extraordinary and unusual. The amount of work stress shall be measured by objective standards and actual events.

9. A mental injury is not considered to arise out of and in the course of the employment if it resulted from any disciplinary action, work evaluation, job transfer, layoff, demotion, termination or any similar action taken in good faith by the employer.

10. The ability of a firefighter to receive benefits for psychological stress under section 287.067 shall not be diminished by the provisions of subsections 8 and 9 of this section."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
